Theta Phi Alpha Announces Closure of Farmingdale State College Colony

BAY VILLAGE, Ohio – On August 9, 2017, the Grand Council of Theta Phi Alpha voted to close the Farmingdale State College Colony in Farmingdale, New York due to sustainability challenges. The Farmingdale State College colony was opened Feb. 24, 2017.

New members of the Farmingdale State College Colony have been invited to join Theta Phi Alpha as alumnae initiates and enjoy the benefits and opportunities that our lifelong sisterhood offers. Questions can be directed to Shane McGoey at the Theta Phi Alpha National Office at (440) 899-9282.

Founded in 1912, Theta Phi Alpha is a women's organization to provide close comradeship; to advance educational, social, and philanthropic interests and leadership training; to encourage spiritual development and adherence to the highest moral standards; and to promote lifelong bonds of friendship; a fraternity for college and university women and alumnae. Theta Phi Alpha was founded at the University of Michigan in Ann Arbor; today there are 58 active collegiate chapters, 37 alumnae associations and four alumnae clubs in the United States.
