Theta Phi Alpha Welcomes New Operations Coordinator for Extension and Programming

BAY VILLAGE, OH – Theta Phi Alpha announces the selection of Sarah Butts, as Operations Coordinator for Extension and Programming. This new full-time position was established as part of Theta Phi Alpha’s long-range strategic plan to increase professional staff support and further develop extension and programming activities and initiatives.

Sarah is a 2009 initiate of Theta Phi Alpha’s Epsilon Chapter at the University of Cincinnati. She brings with her two years of experience as a Leadership Consultant for the Fraternity. During the most recent 2015-16 academic year, Sarah served as Theta Phi Alpha’s Senior Leadership Consultant where she supported four first-year consultants and oversaw the largest area of chapters in the New York, New Jersey and Pennsylvania regions.

“We are thrilled to have Sarah on board to build upon her relationships with campus administrators, collegians and alumnae as we implement greater extension and programming initiatives,” said Shane McGoey, Executive Director of Theta Phi Alpha.

Sarah holds a bachelor’s degree in organizational leadership and communication from the University of Cincinnati. She is currently residing in the Cleveland area.

Founded in 1912, Theta Phi Alpha is a women’s organization to provide close comradeship; to advance educational, social, and philanthropic interests and leadership training; to encourage spiritual development and adherence to the highest moral standards; and to promote lifelong bonds of friendship; a fraternity for college and university women and alumnae. Theta Phi Alpha was founded at the University of Michigan in Ann Arbor; today there are 56 active collegiate chapters, 34 alumnae associations and three alumnae clubs in the United States.
