

Theta Phi Alpha

EVER LOYAL, EVER LASTING.

Welcome to the new year! Recently, I was able to hear Jennifer Jones, President of the National Pan-Hellenic Council, Inc., and a sister of Zeta Phi Beta Sorority, Inc., speak to a group of Panhellenic alumnae volunteers and office staff. Jennifer's messages addressed being loyal to the organization, lifetime commitment, and engagement; the foundation that supports all of this is something that we, as alumnae, can reflect upon: "I am, because someone else was."

It's up to us as alumnae to sustain and advance Theta Phi Alpha. Whether you met someone at recruitment who led you to Theta Phi Alpha or you have an alumna mentor who has guided you during your tenure as a National Officer, someone led the way for you. We now can be that someone and continue to lead more women into being Theta Phi Alpha alumnae.

As a lifetime member of the Ever Loyal, Ever Lasting sisterhood of Theta Phi Alpha, paying your 2017-2018 Annual Alumnae Dues* is an opportunity for you to give back in a simple and meaningful way. A minimum Alumnae Dues payment of $50 establishes you as an alumna in good standing, allows you eligibility to serve as a National Officer, and subscribes you to our wonderful national magazine, The Compass, as well as other Fraternity communications. Your support and involvement will help us achieve great things for our sisterhood.

Theta Phi Alpha has had many successes and made great improvements in the past decade. With your support, we can further our sisterhood through exciting and engaging opportunities:

- Volunteer training – a new volunteer training programming to educate and empower our National Officers and Volunteers
- Everlasting connections – continuing events like the Nosh & Network, an alumnae outing at National Convention, and the opening of new alumnae associations
- Engagement excitement – engaging all alumnae through new channels and means of communication

In continuing the popular Theta Phi Alpha Alumnae Dues Charms program, the first 100 alumnae to donate at least $100 will receive a limited edition 2017-2018 charm. Additionally, those sisters who give $200 or more will also receive a Theta Phi Alpha gold lapel pin.

Make your contribution today through our redesigned website, www.thetaphialpha.org, or by printing out the remittance form and returning it to the Theta Phi Alpha National Office. For added convenience, you may also include your annual donations to the Theta Phi Alpha Foundation General Fund. Note that Theta Phi Alpha Foundation donations count towards your total contribution, but a $50 minimum Alumnae Dues contribution is required to receive any gifts. Yours in the Bonds of Sisterhood,

Lauren Svec Gallo
National Vice President-Alumnae
